Myanmar (Burma) and China Disaster RELIEF FUND

Emergency Assistance Needed from the International Community

Millions of people have been affected by the devastating Cyclone “Nargis” in Myanmar (Burma) and Earthquake in China. Several thousand people have died and millions have been left homeless. Survivors that have been rescued need immediate attention and basic supplies.

Number of international humanitarian groups and organizations have engaged and dedicated themselves to assist the devastated people of both Countries. “Muslim Ummah of North America (MUNA)” urges to donate generously to humanitarian organizations. MUNA has teamed up with “Helping Hand USA” (non-Profit Humanitarian Organization. Toll free number is 1-888-808-4357 www.HelpingHandOnline.org Tax Exempt ID: 31-1628040) to collect funds so that the victims receive the funds fairly and quickly.

The survivors immediately need food, shelter, medicine, clean drinking water, and many other basic survival materials. Please get involved with any organization that will provide its services to assist the devastated people of Burma and China.
